

PCLC June 2024 Newsletter

Joyful June!

May was a busy yet exciting month that opened us up to summer. With the sun getting brighter and the grass getting greener, we bid farewell to May and say hello to June. We hope you and your learners are excited to start this month off fresh and ready to get back onto learning. Make sure to check out this month's featured resources below to find out about some exciting activities coming up! And, let's head on to joyful June!

New resources

We are happy to announce that the PCLC has loads of new educational materials provided by our partner Proliteracy and written specifically for adult learners. Included are books focused on phonics, reader based lessons, and those describing fun activities to keep your learner engaged. If you are interested in learning more about these new acquisitions, please take a look by clicking here ... or feel free to stop by the office.
